The following Addreſs from the City of Norwich, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Peter Seaman and William Blyth, Eſqs; who had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand, (the former of which Her Majeſty conferr'd the Honour of Knighthood upon;) being introduced by the Moſt Honourable the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common-Council Aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

THere is nothing more evident than that Your Majeſty hath entirely at Heart the Good and Welfare of Your own Kingdoms, and the Settlement of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Houſe of Hanover, and the procuring a General Peace to Your Majeſty and all Your Allies. We for our ſelves declare, that we are ſo affected with Joy, that we can't ſufficiently expreſs our juſt Senſe of Gratitude for Your Majeſty's gracious Condeſcenſion, in making known to Your Parliament the advantageous Terms whereon a general Peace may be had, which are not only for the Honour of Your Majeſty, and for the Intereſt, Safety and Happineſs of Your People, but are ſuch as provide a neceſſary and convenient Barrier and Security for Your Allies, and whatever elſe is juſtly due to them by Treaties.

And we (upon this Occaſion) in a more particular manner (as becomes us) expreſs our ſincereſt Acknowledgment for Your Majeſty's great and prudent Care of the Commerce and Trade of Your Kingdoms, which we and our Poſterity muſt ever have in mind with the utmoſt Gratitude.

That (notwithſtanding the cloſe Conſpiracy and the ſecret Artifices of an ill-deſigning and factious Party both at Home and Abroad, all united and join'd together in the ſelf-ſame Evil Intentions, to hinder theſe Your Majeſty's great, good, and honourable Deſigns of obtaining Peace) may Your Majeſty in theſe Your Endeavours effectually ſucceed, to the Joy of Your People, and to the Terror and Downfal of all those (in their Hearts and Practices) obſtructing the ſame.

And it is and ſhall be our conſtant Prayers that Your Majeſty may long live and enjoy the Bleſſings of a proſperous, happy, and peaceable Reign over us.

The following Addreſs from the City of Wincheſter, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Thomas Lewis, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, who had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort, Lord-Lieutenant of the County of Southampton.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of Your Majeſty's moſt ancient City of Wincheſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE moſt humbly beg leave, with Hearts full of Gratitude and Affection, to declare our greateſt Satisfaction in Your Majeſty's continued Endeavours to obtain a Peace, and on ſuch Terms as Your Majeſty, according to Your juſt and undoubted Prerogative ſhall think fit to Conclude; we having an entire Confidence in Your Majeſty's Care, and in Your Miniſters faithful Aſſiſtance to ſecure our Religion as here in England by Law Eſtabliſhed, our Liberties and Trade, and alſo the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Houſe of Hanover, whereby theſe Bleſſings of Peace may in humane Probability be quietly enjoyed by us and our Poſterity.

We are ſurprized at the repeated artificial Endeavours to wreſt the Negotiations and perfecting of Peace from Your Majeſty; yet we ſincerely wiſh and hope, that the Honour of procuring the ſame to Europe, and in an advantageous and honourable Manner to Great Britain, with relation to the extraordinary Burden of this War, will be ſoon proclaimed due to Your Majeſty.

No Diſappointments which Your Majeſty ſhall meet with from thoſe that now envy us the Happineſs of Peace, ſhall diſcourage us from our Loyalty, and readineſs to ſupport and aſſiſt Your Majeſty with our Lives and Fortunes, nor deter us from ſending ſuch Repreſentatives to Parliament as ſhall truly Concur in the moſt proper Methods to ſupport the Prerogative of the Crown, the Church of England, the Welfare of Great Britain, and the Hanover Proteſtant Succeſſion thereto.

We heartily Pray that Your Majeſty may long live in Health and Proſperity, to Reign over dutiful and loyal Subjects, to their Comfort, and to the fruſtrating the Contrivances of others.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Weſtbury, in the County of Wilts, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Honourable Henry Bertie and Francis Anneſly, Eſqs; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Abingdon.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of Your Antient and Loyal Corporation of Weſtbury in the County of Wilts.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

TO permit us, among the reſt of Your moſt dutiful Subjects, with all Humility to expreſs our Thankfulneſs to Your Majeſty for the Endeavours You have been pleaſed to uſe, in procuring an honourable and advantageous Peace.

All who have the Happineſs of being under Your Majeſty's Government, cannot but be ſenſible what a particular Regard Your Majeſty has had to the Trade, Wealth, and Glory of Your own People.

Nor can our ſhare in theſe Advantages be, with any Juſtice, envied us by thoſe of Your Majeſty's Allies, for whom You have obtained ſuch great Acceſſions of Dominion and Power, as will leave 'em no room to fear an Inſecure Peace, or to complain that they have not been more than amply Recompenced for the Proportion they have born in the Expence of the War.

The great Wiſdom of Your Majeſty, and the Vigilance and Reſolution of thoſe with whom You have entruſted the Adminiſtration of Affairs, will, we doubt not, defeat the malicious Contrivances of ill Men, few in Number, and contemptible in their Intereſt, who ſeem willing to Sacrifice our preſent Happineſs, and our future Hopes, to their own reſtleſs Ambition, Avarice and Reſentment.

We cannot but promiſe to our ſelves all the happy Effects intended by Your Majeſty, in the preſent Negotiation for Peace, whilſt the Perſons to whom the Management of that important Affair is committed, are too Wiſe to miſtake, and too Honeſt to betray the Intereſt of their Country. And whilſt You have a General at the Head of Your Armies, who is above the ſuſpicion of any private Views, who propoſes to himſelf no Advantages by his Services, but the Honour of having ſerved ſo Excellent a Queen and his Country, and whoſe greateſt Ambition it is, to pay the profoundeſt Reverence to the Sacred Perſon of Your Majeſty, and the moſt ſtrict Obedience to all Your Commands.

The following Addreſs from the Corporation of Dunwich, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Mr. Serjeant Richardſon, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Bullingbrooke, one of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUENE's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Recorder, Aldermen, and Free Burgeſſes of Your Majeſty's antient and loyal Corporation of Dunwich, in the County of Suffolk, in Common-Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, humbly beg leave to approach Your Sacred Perſon, to expreſs our grateful Acknowledgments to Your Majeſty, for Your moſt gracious Condeſcenſion, in Communicating to Your People the Terms on which a ſafe and honourable Peace may be obtained.

We are deeply ſenſible of the Princely Regard Your Majeſty has at all times ſhewn for the Good and Welfare of Your People, but never had we a greater Occaſion to expreſs our unfeigned Joy and Satisfaction, than in the Affectionate Care Your Majeſty has been pleaſed to ſhew for the Happineſs and Proſperity of Your People, in ſecuring the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, and reſtoring Peace to Europe.

May the God of Peace bleſs Your Royal Endeavours in bringing to Perfection ſo great and glorious a Work, and diſappoint the reſtleſs and factious Contrivances of thoſe who are Enemies to it, that we and all Your Loyal People may long Flouriſh, and Rejoice under Your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious and benign Reign.

The following Addreſs from the Corporation of Cambridge, was preſented to Her Majeſty by John Hinde Cotton, and Samuel Shepherd, Eſqs; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Bullingbrooke, One of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Dread Sovereign!

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common-Council and Burgeſſes, of Your Majeſty's Antient Corporation of Cambridge, do acknowledge with the greateſt Humility, Your Majeſty's moſt Gracious Condeſcenſion,

in

in laying the Terms of Peace before Your Parliament, and as that was unprecedented by any of Your Predeceſſors, ſo are the Glories of Your Majeſty's Reign, which have juſtly intituled Your Majeſty to be Mediator to Europe; an Honour, we are not ſo much ſurprized to find envied by Your Allies, as that there ſhould be a Spirit in ſome of Your own Subjects, ſo reſtleſs and factious, as to endeavour to deny Your Majeſty the Glory, and Your People the Happineſs of ſuch a Peace, ſo Honourable and Advantageous to Britain, and ſo juſt and reaſonable to all Her Allies.

We can't ſufficiently admire Your Majeſty's Great Wiſdom and Reſolution in the carrying on this great and good Work, through the many Difficulties and Obſtructions Your Majeſty has met with from ſome of Your Allies, who though they have not in any Degree felt the Burden that Britain bore of the War; yet would reap all the Advantages that can be gain'd by a Peace, and from a Sett of People at Home, whoſe Intereſt was founded on War; and whoſe Power depended on the Ruin of their Country.

May the Almighty grant You, Madam, a long Life; may all Your Undertakings be Crown'd with Succeſs; may Faction be buried, and Loyalty flouriſh, and may no Contention remain, but who can ſhew themſelves the moſt dutiful Subjects to the beſt of Queens, and then we ſhall have no Occaſion for a Foreign Guarantee to ſecure the Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover; which after the unſpeakable Loſs of ſo great and good a Princeſs, we have moſt ſincerely at our Hearts.

All which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.
